This continuing education program takes a no-nonsense approach to this training and is intended to help all licensed funeral directors recognize and think through ethical issues when they arise, and to contribute to their overall knowledge of the ethical decision-making process. This is an area that has many nuances, and implications and to be sure there are frequently no clear-cut answers, but we can try. The honesty, integrity and good will of those who work in our beloved profession will be enhanced by the information taught in this educational program.
